

State Baptist Convention.

For the first time in 42 years the Connecticut Baptist convention will be held in the Union Baptist church of Mystic on October 15, 16 and 17. The Mystic church is already making plans to entertain the delegates, of which it is estimated there will be over 300, coming from all parts of the state. The Baptist churches of Naugatuck and Shelton are to help entertain the delegates who will be there two nights.

State College Cottages.

Comptroller Thomas D. Bradstreet received on Tuesday four competitive plans for the proposed four new cottages and dining hall of the Connecticut agricultural college. The comptroller did not open the bids nor was there anything in the outside of the sealed envelopes to indicate the names of the bidders. All the bids have been sent to the trustees of the college.

"Is This Really My Old Coat?"

That is an expression often heard when a man gets back from his old overcoat he sent to be pressed and "freshened up." It is hard to believe that is the same old garment, with all the wrinkles and unshapeliness taken out of it. If YOU want such a surprise, send along your coat or any other garment you have that may need reweaving, and see how quickly we will give it another lease of life—and at little cost, too.

BOROWY GUILTY OF FORGERY

Verdict of Jury who Considered case About an Hour—
Other Prisoners Plead Guilty and Get Sentences of Varying Length.

When the jury was called in in the criminal superior court in this city Tuesday morning at 10.47, the arguments were made in the case of the state vs. Joseph Borowy, charged with forgery. They occupied the remainder of the morning session, when court came in for the afternoon Judge Wheeler charged them, occupying 35 minutes, when they retired for the consideration of the evidence. They were out about an hour on the matter, reporting about 3.35 o'clock, with a verdict of guilty. At the request of Attorney Barnes the sentence was deferred.

State's Attorney Hull stated that the next case to be tried would be that of the state vs. Hazel Bowman, colored, charged with misprision of felony in assisting a criminal to escape. As the witnesses in the case were not here so that it could be proceeded with, adjournment was taken until 10 o'clock this morning, and the state's attorney spent the remainder of the afternoon conferring with witnesses in other cases to come up.

Cases Disposed Of.

There were many cases disposed of during the day, several changing their pleas and receiving sentences. Three cases were nolle and there was one instance of suspended sentence.

The case against Michael Cohen has been continued until next term.

In the case of Michael Dwyer of Providence and Frank Kieran of New London, charged with stealing a bronze rudder at New London, May 26, the accused pleaded guilty and were sentenced to a year in jail each.

They assisted in taking away the rudder, valued at $136, although another originally stole it, but he got away. The case against Louis Girard of New London and Cornelius Moore, alias Thomas Moore of this city, was nolle. They were charged with robbing Bernard Craddock, of a watch in New London valued at $25, on May 28. A letter to a sister of one of the accused from Mr. Craddock, who is in Vermont, stated that the watch was not stolen from him, but he gave it to them to have repaired.

Howard Shelly, aged 21, changed his plea to guilty to stealing a launch on September 5 and was given not more than three months or one year in state prison. "This was done after it had been explained that Shelly had a bad record, having served one year in jail for burglary and having figured in other unsavory incidents, and that Bedell had a good record and that he had turned state's evidence, telling all. James Bedell, aged 19, who was mixed up in the affair, had his case nolle.

Shelly and Bedell are the men who stole Henry Schwaner, Jr.'s launch from its moorings in the rear of the New England Carpet Lining company's plan in Water street, New London, one Saturday night recently, and abandoned the launch when they could no longer manage it and boarded the yawl Oriole at Black Point. It was on charge of stealing the yawl, which was the property of Assistant District Attorney Perkins of New York, a cotager at the Point, that the men were arraigned.

George Doyle of New London, colored, who pleaded guilty to helping Samuel Kelson, the colored man, who gave a sailor named Both such a bad cutting this summer, to escape, was given ten months in jail.

On the charge of stealing chickens in Waterford Joseph Sanderson pleaded guilty and was given a year in jail. The sentence was suspended as in the Watrous case and the accused was placed in charge of Probation Officer Mansfield.

Stetson Case Nolle.

In the case of state vs. Nellie Stetson, who was charged with taking, receiving, employing and using a female, Viola Peters, on June 1, for purposes of prostitution, a nolle was entered. The state's attorney, stating that the evidence was not sufficient in this case. This had to do with the case of Rena Smith, who pleaded guilty last week.

Michael Commiskey, charged with assaulting and then robbing Patrick Brady in Pawcatuck on June 27 last, was fined $25 and costs. It was explained by State Attorney Hull and Attorney John C. Geary that there had been no robbery. The charge was changed to simple assault. Commiskey pleaded guilty after Mr. Geary had asked for a light fine the fine of $25 and costs was imposed. Commiskey is a Spanish war veteran.

Demurrer to Burns Petition.

State Attorney Hull has filed the following demurrer to the petition for a new trial for Addie Burns, who was sent to state prison for from twelve to twenty years:

The said complaint and the allegations therein do not show that the judgment rendered in said case complained of was substantially unjust; that from the facts alleged in said complaint it appears that the error or irregularity, if any, complained of was merely technical; that it does not appear from the facts alleged in said complaint that substantial justice was not or may not have been done in said cause to the said complaint; that the defect, if any, arising from the acts complained of was healed by the verdict of the jury; and further, that the language and conduct of said juror as alleged in said complaint were harmless, and do not show that said juror was improperly biased or prejudiced or antagonistic to the said petitioner, in said trial, or that said juror possessed an unjust zeal and partiality and partisanship for the prosecution or for the conviction of the petitioner of the complaint; and further that there are no facts alleged in said complaint which show that said verdict and the sentence of said court were unjust or unreasonable.

An amended plea in bar has been filed in the case of the state vs. Abraham Fox et al. to which the state's attorney has filed another demurrer, while a written brief in the matter has also been filed.

TAFTVILLE

Philias Dion and Rev. Philip Massicotte Expected Back This Week—Robert Graham Home from Panama—Naturalization Club Plans Active Season.

Miss Christina Graham of Providence street was a visitor in Hartford on Saturday.

Adelard Goucher has entered the employ of J. C. Marsan and is working nights in the latter's store.

Joseph Benoit of Merchants avenue left Saturday for a visit to relatives in Pittsburg. He will return Thursday.

Joseph Belhumeur returned Monday to his home, on Front street, after spending a year with relatives in Montreal and other places in Canada.

Robert Graham, assistant postmaster at Pedro Miguel, in the canal zone, at his home in Taftville, arriving here Monday afternoon. He will probably not return to Panama, as the climate there is not altogether favorable to his health, and it is possible that he may go to Texas in the postal service.

The Taftville Athletic club football eleven played a team of Ponemah Wheel club members Saturday afternoon on the Providence street grounds, in a practice game. The latter won 15-0, because of their much greater weight. The halves were 15 minutes each. On next Saturday afternoon the T. A. C. team plays Baltic at Taftville.

The Taftville Naturalization club held a meeting Tuesday afternoon, which marks the beginning of an active season for the club. Regular meetings have not been held during the summer, but hereafter they are to take place every two weeks, and an active winter's work is being planned by the officers of the club. After the meeting Sunday, at which two new members were initiated, a banquet was enjoyed.

Philias Dion wrote to his family Sunday from Saguenay, Quebec, Canada, saying that with Rev. Philip Massicotte, who is with him, he would be back home the latter part of this week. Mr. Dion and Father Massicotte left Taftville Labor day and since then have visited Boston, Lisbon, N. H., St. Anne de Beaupre and Montreal. They enjoyed a several days' hunting trip in the vicinity of Karamouska, St. Alexander county, P. Q., but reports of the big game they killed have not yet been received.

Men Hurt at New Mill.

Two Italians, whose names were not learned, were hurt at the new mill on Tuesday afternoon about 2.15 when one of the small cars on the narrow gauge railway, used to convey material from one part of the mill to another, escaped from control. The man in charge was said to be inexperienced and the car got to going so fast that it could not be stopped, and hit one man in the thigh and crushed the finger of another. The injured men were attended by Dr. George Thompson, who found the first man's thigh so badly lacerated that it was advisable to send him to the Backus hospital, where he will be confined for some little time.

Not a One-Man Country.

There is no indispensable business man among us today. Prosperity is more broadly diffused than that. It is in a way, 90,000,000 strong. No matter what man dies, the business of the nation will go on and up. Nature will continue to yield her bounty to reward man's labor. The factory will continue its useful efforts to supply man's growing needs. The great railroad highways of the country will not cease to do the work of distribution and exchange. There may be a momentary pause, but that is all.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

An automobile, said to cost $1,800 when first sold, was disposed of at public auction at the Berlin fair on Thursday, and a Meriden man got it for $205.

FALL MILLINERY.

Elegant Hats Displayed During Tuesday's Openings—Imported Ornaments and Novelties.

The millinery openings on Tuesday engaged the attention of femininity, and the various novelties in pattern hats, rich ornaments, imported feathers, flowers, buckles, cabouchons, etc., came in for their full share of admiration.

Large hats are fully as popular as during last season. An elegant model is in black velvet with moire edge, and nine beautiful black feathers—its price well towards $100, as it naturally would be.

In the modish artichoke shade a handsome felt with rolling brim has for trimming a band of velvet, with a fancy bandeau in leaf shades, soft plumes and dainty ornaments.

A stylish sailor with rolling brim, in the favorite champagne tint, is effectively banded with black velvet, its garniture large "bowknot" wings of black.

Most artistic and dashing is a continental model of black silk, beaver and the much favored gold cloth, its ornament a beautiful white zig-zag.

For real winter service wear, a Russian chapeau of black beaver cloth, with a moire silk crown, and trimming of gold cloth and black quills, will appeal to the girl who designs to wear a fur coat this season.

Modest and dainty is a blue turban of shirred panne velvet, with beautiful finger band.

Buying has begun well, in anticipation of coming social affairs of the early fall. Fastidious women like to have the pick of the first exclusive models, which will not be likely to be duplicated.

Their example is a good one to follow. To find these and other elegant hats, take The Bulletin's millinery advertisements today as your guide.

Calvin Burrows Improving.

The condition of Calvin Burrows, the Poquonoc man, who received the contents of his shotgun in the back a few days ago, is slightly improved. The pains in the limbs have somewhat passed away, a most favorable symptom, which would appear to indicate that the spine and spinal cord are not as extensively injured as was first supposed. The assured outcome of the wounds cannot be given for several days.
